

Make Your Own Resurrection Eggs

Resurrection eggs are a fun, experiential way to share the Easter story with children. Each egg contains a scripture passage and an object that symbolizes that part of the story. Here is a simple way to make your own resurrection eggs at home this year. Simply write or print out the scripture passages and put them in each egg along with the item listed. It's also a good idea to number the eggs so children can re-tell the story in proper order.

**Note: Specific egg colors don't matter that much. These are suggestions, but you can use whatever you have on hand.*
