This text formed a very small part of an elaborate Christian missionary pageant in the early 20th century, yet it has endured while the grander aspects of that production have faded away. It is set to a simple 19th-century tune that does not get in the way of its message.

* PROCESSIONAL HYMN: No. 318 – In Christ There Is No East or West..... ST. PETER

* CALL TO CONFESSION and PRAYER OF CONFESSIONNewton Cowan

God of Grace, we have harmed your children whom you love. Because we do not understand them, we segregate them, we reject them, we demonize them, and we hurt them. Forgive us, in your infinite love, and teach us to welcome all of your children until our hospitality is as wide as your mercy. Help us to understand others as we wish to be understood. Guide us to love one another as you love us. Amen.

A brief period of silence is observed for personal confession.

WE HEAR GOD'S WORD

THE WORD READ: Leviticus 19:33-34.....Chuck Norman

“When an alien resides with you in your land, you shall not oppress the alien. The alien who resides with you shall be to you as the native-born among you; you shall love the alien as yourself, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.”

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM: You Are God's Child..... John Horman (b.1946)

Chancel Choir

You are God's child, most dear.
Your pray'rs God will always hear
as long as you love, God will forgive,
and bless you, O child most dear.

God has chosen you.
By water you're born anew.
It touches your face, a sign of God's grace freely given to you.

All who are gathered today will guide you along the way.
Through Jesus, God's Son, we are made one,
One in the spirit, loving and serving,
we are one fam'ly today!

THE WORD READ: Galatians 3:26-28

... for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek; there is no longer slave or free; there is no longer male and female, for all of you are one in Christ Jesus.

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

THE WORD PROCLAIMED: One in Christ..... Matt Bussell

O for a World

372

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of two systems. The first system has a vocal line in treble clef and a piano accompaniment in bass clef. The second system also has a vocal line in treble clef and a piano accompaniment in bass clef. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are printed below the vocal lines.

1 O for a world where ev - ery - one re - spects each oth - er's ways,
2 O for a world where goods are shared and mis - er - y re - lieved,
3 We wel - come one world fam - i - ly and strug - gle with each choice
4 The poor are rich; the weak are strong; the fool - ish ones are wise.
5 O for a world pre - par - ing for God's glo - rious reign of peace, where love is lived and all is done with jus - tice and with praise.

where truth is spo - ken, chil - dren spared, e - qual - i - ty a - chieved.
that o - pens us to u - ni - ty and gives our vi - sion voice.
Tell all who mourn: out - casts be - long, who per - ish - es will rise.
where time and tears will be no more, and all but love will cease.

Everything longed for in this text is a reminder of how far our present world is from what God wants. Yet this is not just wishful thinking; it is a call to action, a summons to participate in the fulfillment of God's desire for all earth's people to live in radical shalom.

WE RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD

* HYMN OF RESPONSE: No. 372 – O for a World AZMON

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH Jill Duffield

We believe that Christ's work of reconciliation is made manifest in the church as the community of believers who have been reconciled with God and with one another; that unity is both a gift and an obligation for the church of Jesus Christ; that this unity must become visible so that the world may believe that separation, enmity, and hatred between people and groups is sin which Christ has already conquered, and accordingly that anything which threatens this unity may have no place in the church and must be resisted.

We believe that the church must stand by people in any form of suffering and need, which implies, among other things, that the church must witness against and strive against any form of injustice, so that justice may roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream. Amen.

– The Confession of Belhar

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

concluding with the Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power,
and the glory, forever. Amen.

IN MEMORIAM

Ann Pender Snyder

Having once been mistaken for the queen while touring Buckingham Palace, Ann Snyder might have had an uncanny resemblance in style and demeanor. But Ann was very much a product of the North Carolina roots and Southern culture she valued and served. Family, friends, this church, and the wider community lost a valued soul when Ann died peacefully, Thursday, October 31, 2024.

Ann Pender Snyder was born in Wilson, North Carolina, April 28, 1930. She graduated from Fayetteville Senior High School and Women's College (UNCG) in Greensboro, and after graduation married William David Snyder, Jr., in 1953. Together they made a warm and welcoming home in Greensboro and raised two girls, Pamela and Frances.

Homemaking and a period of working in the law offices of Major L. P. McLendon did not preclude Ann from community volunteerism in a variety of areas. Ann was deeply involved in Preservation Greensboro and Blandwood Museum, served on the boards of Preservation North Carolina and the North Carolina Museum of History, and was a dedicated volunteer at the Greensboro History Museum.

Politics was another interest. She was an important contributor to the campaign efforts of John F. Kennedy and subsequently was invited by Governor Hodges of North Carolina to meet Kennedy prior to his election. It was an extraordinary moment for Ann, making a lifelong cherished memory and one she thoroughly enjoyed sharing throughout her life.

She volunteered in the Intensive Care Unit at Cone Hospital for thirty years. She was active at West Market Street United Methodist Church and later at First Presbyterian, where she shared her leadership skills as an elder. She was a founding member of the Greensboro Opera Company and was social chairman of the Sedgefield Hunt. She was a member of the Wall Street Wizards investment club. Her love of reading, history, and the rich culture of the area led Ann to serve as member, then president and head trustee of the Historical Book Club of North Carolina.

Those who love Christmas gravitate to Christmas at Blandwood, and Ann was no exception. She loved creating Christmas stockings, playing tennis, traveling with her husband Bill, spending summers at Long Beach, cooking, knitting, seeing friends. She enjoyed enormously time spent with her grandchildren. Ann had a quick intelligence, a warm smile and a joyful greeting for all with whom she came in contact. Ann was much loved by all she met.

Ann's husband William Snyder predeceased her in 2015; she is survived by daughters Pamela Snyder Sessoms and husband Keith Valaer Sessoms; Frances Snyder Jones and husband Roland Manning Jones Jr.; and grandchildren Keith Valaer Sessoms Jr., Richard Carlton Parrish, Ann Pender Sessoms, Kyle Marie Novak and Roland Manning Jones, as well as many nieces and nephews. To them, Ann leaves a legacy of warmth, family values, and fond memories.

The Session of First Presbyterian Church offers expression of appreciation for the life well lived of Ann Pender Snyder. It offers deep condolences to her family and asks that this tribute be placed in its minutes.
