FEBRUARY 9, 2025

11:00 a.m.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY
MULLIN FORUM SUNDAY

WE ASSEMBLE IN GOD’S NAME

Let us prepare our hearts and minds to worship God.

VOLUNTARY: Fantasia on ‘Ubi Caritas’ Brenda Portman (b. 1980)
John Alexander, organ

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS..... Jill Duffield

* CALL TO WORSHIP Newton Cowan

Leader: In deep gratitude we come to worship God.

All: We recognize God as the source of all goodness.

Leader: All good gifts come from the Spirit of God:

All: Love, peace, joy, patience, kindness, gentleness are all of God.

Leader: We come with grateful hearts, not for things, but for who God is.

All: We gather to show our gratitude in song and prayer.

* PROCESSIONAL HYMN: No. 14 – For the Beauty of the Earth DIX

For the Beauty of the Earth

14

1 For the beau - ty of the earth, for the glo - ry of the skies,
 2 For the won - der of each hour of the day and of the night,
 3 For the joy of ear and eye, for the heart and mind's de - light,
 4 For the joy of hu - man love, broth - er, sis - ter, par - ent, child,
 5 For thy - self, best gift di - vine to the world so free - ly given;

for the love which from our birth o - ver and a - round us lies:
 hill and vale, and tree and flower, sun and moon, and stars of light:
 for the mys - tic har - mo - ny link - ing sense to sound and sight:
 friends on earth, and friends a - bove, for all gen - tle thoughts and mild:
 for that great, great love of thine, peace on earth and joy in heaven:

Refrain

Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grate - ful praise.

In the course of many revisions, the original eucharistic emphasis of this text has shifted to a hymn of thanksgiving for a wide range of human experience, with a Christological summation. It is set here to the tune that is customary in North America, though not elsewhere.

* CALL TO CONFESSION and PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Holy God, Creator of all that is and Giver of Life:

Hear our prayer.

There are chasms in our lives, deep valleys that separate us
From one another and from You.

We confess that we have allowed those rifts to grow,
For fear of admitting our part in the separation,
For fear of being rejected when we reach out.

You call us to a reconciled life, to healed relationships,
To a wholeness with each other and with You.

Mend us, we pray, and make us new creations
Through the power and love of Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

A brief period of silence is observed for personal confession.

* ASSURANCE OF PARDON

* THE PEACE

Leader: Since God has forgiven us in Christ, let us forgive one another.
The peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

* PASSING OF THE PEACE

* RESPONSE TO THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON:

WE HEAR GOD’S WORD

THE WORD READ: Leviticus 19:9-18.....Paula Hoeger

“When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. You shall not strip your vineyard bare or gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the alien: I am the LORD your God.

“You shall not steal; you shall not deal falsely; and you shall not lie to one another. And you shall not swear falsely by my name, profaning the name of your God: I am the LORD.

“You shall not defraud your neighbor; you shall not steal; and you shall not keep for yourself the wages of a laborer until morning. You shall not revile the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind; you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

“You shall not render an unjust judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbor. You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not stand idly by when the blood of your neighbor is at stake: I am the LORD.

“You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbor, or you will incur guilt yourself. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.”

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM: A New Commandment Thomas Tallis (1505-1585)

Chancel Choir

A new commandment I give unto you, saith the Lord,
That ye love together as I have loved you,
That e'en so ye love one another.
By this shall ev'ryman know that ye are my disciples,
If ye have love one to another.

THE WORD READ: Luke 10:25-37

An expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind and your neighbor as yourself." And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live."

But wanting to vindicate himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and took off, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while traveling came upon him, and when he saw him he was moved with compassion. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, treating them with oil and wine. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him, and when I come back I will repay you whatever more you spend.' Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

This text and tune were written to conclude a hymn festival at the 2009 Annual Conference of The Hymn Society in the United States and Canada. Four parables framed both the festival and the hymn: the Mustard Seed, the Prodigal Son, the Good Samaritan, and the Ten Bridesmaids.

WE RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD

* HYMN OF RESPONSE: No. 771 – What Is the World Like.....NEW WORLD

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH.....Jill Duffield

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body;
and the life everlasting. Amen.

– Traditional Apostles' Creed

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

concluding with the Lord's Prayer:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.

Chancel Choir*

Many waters cannot quench Love,
neither can the floods drown it.
Love is strong as death.
Greater Love hath no man that this,
that a man lay down his life for his friends.
Who His own Self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree,
That we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.
Ye are wash'd, ye are sanctified, ye are justified,
in the Name of the Lord Jesus;
Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation.
That ye should shew forth the praises of Him
Who hath call'd you out of darkness into His marvelous light.
I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God,
That ye present your bodies, a living sacrifice,
Holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service

In this challenging text by a British Methodist minister, the odd-numbered stanzas develop the image of "the servant church," while the second surveys the many needs and the fourth describes the true source of strength for the task.

About C. Kavin Rowe

C. Kavin Rowe is the vice dean of the faculty and the George Washington Ivey Distinguished Professor of New Testament. The third volume of his collected essays has recently been published as Studies in Luke, Acts, and Paul (Eerdmans, 2024). The second volume, Method, Context, and Meaning in New Testament Studies, was published early this year (Eerdmans, 2024), and the first volume, Leading Christian Communities, in 2023 (Eerdmans). Rowe is the author of four other books: Christianity's Surprise: A Sure and Certain Hope (Abingdon, 2020), One True Life: the Stoics and Early Christians as Rival Traditions (Yale University Press, 2016), World Upside Down: Reading Acts in the Graeco-Roman Age (Oxford University Press, 2009, paperback 2010), and Early Narrative Christology (de Gruyter, 2006, repr. Baker Academic, 2009). He has published dozens of articles and essays, and co-edited The Word Leaps the Gap (Eerdmans, 2008) and Rethinking the Unity and Reception of Luke and Acts (University of South Carolina Press, 2010). He is on the editorial board of several international peer-review journals and has also frequently written articles for faithandleadership.com.

Rowe has been a Fulbright Scholar, Regional Scholar for the Society of Biblical Literature, chair of the Society's Southeastern Region New Testament section, president of the Society's Southeastern Region, and was elected to the Studiorum Novi Testamenti Societas. He was awarded a Lilly Faculty Fellowship, a Christian Faith and Life Grant from the Louisville Institute, the John Templeton Prize for Theological Promise, the Paul J. Achtemeier Award, and a Distinguished Scholars grant from the McDonald Agape Foundation.

About The Mullin Forum

In 1991, the Session of First Presbyterian Church established the Joe and Betty Mullin Preaching and Teaching Forum to honor the former FPC minister and his wife. Over the years, the forum has brought “distinguished preachers, teachers or similar guests” to preach for the community and to conduct workshops. Designed for rejuvenation and rejoicing, the forum has given pastors, church professionals and lay leaders a place to rest and rediscover their gifts, and to rejoice in the God who gave them.

Past speakers have included Fred Craddock, Samuel Proctor, Walter Brueggemann, Joanna M. Adams, Rodger Nishioka, John Buchanan, Nora T. Tisdale, Tom Tewell, Thomas Troeger, Barbara Brown Taylor, James A. Forbes Jr., Anna Carter Florence, Tom Long, Frances Taylor Gench, Brian Blount, Kenda Creasy Dean, Diana Butler Bass, Ted Wardlaw, Scott Black Johnston, Shannon Johnson Kershner, Mary Louise Bringle, and Luke Powery.

WE WELCOME YOU to the worship of God and to our community of faith.
We are a church of growing disciples believing that worship is at the center of all we are and do as Christians.

We seek to be God's changemakers for good in the world.
FPC is a Matthew 25 church, and our creation care and hunger ministries have been recognized by the Presbyterian Church USA.

TAKING ATTENDANCE: The QR code, left, directs you to an online form; just open your smartphone camera, hold it over the code, and follow the prompts. If you do not have a smartphone, you can pick up a physical copy of an attendance card as you enter the Life Center or Sanctuary. If using the paper form, place it in the offering at the end of the service. On the back of the card is a prayer request form. Your submitted prayers will be prayed for by staff members and kept in strict confidence.

NURSERY CARE IS PROVIDED for infants through age 4 on the first floor of Mullin Life Center. Our Child Protection Policy helps ensure our care is safe, loving and appropriate.

WHAT TO DO – UNWELLNESS AND MEDICAL

EMERGENCIES: If during the service you or someone who is with you begins to feel unwell, or is having a medical emergency; or if you notice someone else having a medical event; please contact the closest usher, who can assist in the situation.

PARKING MINISTRY: This ministry helps members with mobility issues get from their cars to the sanctuary for the 11 am service on Sundays. Two volunteers work on Greene Street 10:30-11:15 am. Passengers may be dropped off at the Greene Street door and will be escorted into the sanctuary. Drivers will be directed to a reserved space as needed. One volunteer is needed after the service until 12:15 pm. Want to help? Choose a Sunday at fpcgreensboro.org/signup.

THE LITURGICAL COLOR GREEN seen through the parament on the lectern and the pastors' stoles signifies the season of "Ordinary Time." This season is a time of spiritual growth when the scriptures about Jesus' preaching, teaching and healings are read and proclaimed.

ABOUT TODAY'S FLOWERS: The chancel flowers are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Mary "Momette" Hankins by Susan and Ed Giraldo.

WAYS TO GIVE: In addition to the in-person offering, you may also give by mail, web, app, or text. Scan the QR code (right) to give online. You can also go to fpcgreensboro.org/give/web-app-text to download the FellowshipOne Giving mobile app (Apple  or Android ) and for instructions for giving via text. You may also mail your gift to the church at 617 N. Elm St., Greensboro, NC 27401. Go to fpcgreensboro.org/give for more ways to give.

IN MEMORIAM

John Alexander Edwards
Dec. 2, 1934 - Oct. 2, 2024

During his time as a volunteer manager in Disaster Mental Health with the American Red Cross, John Edwards would encourage staff to be “a meaningful presence” – a commitment he made in his own life for 89 years until his death last fall at River Landing at Sandy Ridge.

A native of Rocky Mount, N.C., John attended Davidson College and met Evelyn Copelan, a student at Queens College (now University), after their freshman year in college. They married shortly after graduation in 1957 and were together 66 years until her death in April 2024. They were blessed with four children, eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

After earning master’s and doctoral degrees in clinical psychology at UNC Chapel Hill and the University of Tennessee, respectively, John set up a private practice in Greensboro that he maintained for decades. He was one of the first licensed psychologists in North Carolina.

John was founding and long-time director of the UNCG Counseling and Testing Center, and he taught psychology at UNCG and N.C. A&T State University. He was a trusted advisor on issues with families in more than 70 appearances in 27 years on WFMY’s “The Good Morning Show.”

John carried his passion and expertise into the wider community as a volunteer leader for many years. With the Red Cross, he worked on 17 disaster operations and led teams providing mental health support to both clients and disaster workers. He offered pro bono psychological services to low income and homeless people through Greensboro’s Urban Ministries.

John was involved in school desegregation and racial reconciliation efforts in Greensboro, including a leadership role on a Board of Education advisory committee related to school integration. He was on the board of Family Life Council and consulted with Head Start.

One organization that was particularly important to him was the Irish Children’s Summer Program, which brought Protestant and Catholic children from Belfast to Greensboro in an effort to bring those communities together.

John and Evelyn were active at First Presbyterian Church; he as an Elder and long-time senior high youth advisor and she as Director of Christian Education for Elementary Children.

He received the Clara Barton Award for Meritorious Volunteer Leadership from the Red Cross, the Media Award from the N.C. Mental Health Association and Physician of the Year from the Greensboro Mayor’s Office Council on Employment of the Handicapped.

The Session gives thanks to God for John’s life and offers its deepest condolences to his family and friends. It requests that a copy of this memorial be placed in its minutes and a copy sent to his family.
